

Sixtieth Anniversary - Mr. and Mrs. George Toms - Page Two

Moving to Owen Sound in 1920, Mr. Toms was in the insurance business for some time and then in the garage business with his son, Cecil Toms. They lived on Third Avenue West until two years ago when they moved out to a small and attractive modern stone home beside Mr. Cecil Toms' home on the Meaford highway.

Mr. and Mrs. Toms had a family of two sons and two daughters; Cecil of Owen Sound, Allie, Mrs. Ole Bones of Agincourt, who was here for her parents' Anniversary and a son and daughter deceased. There are three grandchildren.

Mr. and Mrs. Toms are members of Central United Church, where Mrs. Toms has been connected with the W. M. S. and the Woman's Association. She was a member of the Owen Sound Women's Institute for years, a member of the Owen Sound Chapter 94 Order of the Eastern Star and a member years ago of the Y. M. C. A. Auxiliary.
