

The cemetery beside the Church was most sadly neglected but thanks to the efforts of the Dr. Kent and Mr. John Morgan, weekly work bees were started and the men responded well. Soon it was a well cared for spot. Not everyone could assist in this way but contributions were called for and a fund started, which keeps the cemetery in fairly good shape.

The ministers who have been in the Manse since Union are: Rev. and Mrs. Sydney Martin and their sons, Nigel and Barry. In 1933, Rev. C.W. Krug and his bride came to the manse. In 1936 Rev. A. and Mrs. Rintoul, then in 1943, Rev. George E. and Mrs. Coulter who were with us until 1945 when Re. D.A. MacKeracher and his very capable wife came. We enjoyed many fine solos by Mrs. MacKeracher. In 1949, Rev. L.S. Paisley and Mrs. Paisley came and stayed until 1955. Then, Dr. Kent, Mrs. Kent and family were in the manse until 1960. Since March, 1961, Rev. Russell Finley and Mrs. Finley have been with us but are leaving in November, 1964.

As we look at the work of the Church, let us never feel that we cannot help. There is a place for every talent: business ability, teaching ability, musical ability or it may even be:

"They also serve who only stand and wait".
