

BICENTENNIAL SHOW—With clothes that had been either stored away or just made, a fashion show of old fashions, appropriate in Ontario's Bicentennial year, was held at Birmingham Lodge last week by members of the Dromore Women's Institute, their fourth show in the area this year. In front (l to r) are Mary Eccles, Hilda Echlin, Florence Harrison, Ruth Thomas, and at back (l to r) Jean Bourn, Doris Leith, Vicki Braeker, Marion Eccles, May Martin and Lily Steele (Shumka).

Dromore kitchen band made debut Saturday

1979

QUITE A BAND—The Dromore Women's Institute Kitchen Band were a real hit at the Institute's annual "at home" euchre and variety program Saturday night. The music makers were Dorothy Ellsworth on drums; Marlon Eccles on cymbals, Doris McKenzie on spoons; Florence Harrison with beater and grater; Mary Eccles on washboard, Ruth Thomas on washboard and Jean Bourn at the piano. Conducting the band, with a knife and fork, was Donna Milne.