

A BIG JOB— Christopher Leith had an important job at the Dromore Women's Institute "At Home" Saturday evening — he was the master of ceremonies and announced the various performers. Clutching the notes he had to help him, Christopher sits beside his mother, Diane Leith, and watches the performance. (Pinnegar Photo)

BROTHERS PERFORM— Leslie, Paul and Jonathon Eccles sang a couple of songs at the Dromore Women's Institute "At Home" Saturday evening, much to the delight of the capacity crowd at the Dromore Hall. The boys are the sons of Larry and Shirley Eccles. (Pinnegar Photo)

FIRST TIME ON STAGE— Little Joy Leith and Katie Watson stole the audience's heart when they performed two songs at the Dromore Women's Institute "At Home" Saturday evening. It was the first time the two girls had sang together in public. Joy is the daughter of Steve and Diane Leith and Katie is the daughter of Dale and Lynda Watson. (Pinnegar Photo)

JUNIOR CHOIR PERFORMS— The Dromore Junior Choir, under the direction of Diane Leith and accompanied by Kit Patterson, performed at the Dromore Women's Institute "At Home" Saturday evening. There was a standing room only crowd at the annual variety concert, despite cold snowy weather outside.

1985
Dromore Women's Institute "At Home"