

Women's Institute

North Grey

Ruth Robertson was hostess for the January meeting of North Grey Junior Institute.

Officers elected include: president, Donna Clark; vice-president, Dorothy Beaumont; past president, Mary Silverthorn; secretary-treasurer, Marion Koepke; assistant, Joyce Taylor and public relations June Benedict.

Directors include Marie Fligg and Bonnie Johns with Penny Fenwick and Evelyn Robertson the auditors.

The February meeting of North Grey Junior Institute was held at the home of Cheryl Plakholm.

Cathy Cruickshank showed slides of New Guinea where she was involved in social work for 15 months. Assisting the hostess was Ruth Robertson.

Judy Morrow, public health nurse, spoke on family planning at the March meeting of North Grey Junior Institute.

A rummage sale is to be held April 1 at the market building. Marilyn Marshall assisted the hostess.

+ + +

North Grey Juniors

Penny Fenwick was hostess for the April meeting of North Grey Junior Institute.

After opening exercises, the business included plans for a September rummage sale. Bylaws were reviewed and revisions completed.

A donation of $400 will be made to the Owen Sound General and Marine Hospital for the purchase of four chrome intravenous poles.

Assisting the hostess with refreshments was Ruth Dinsmore.

North Grey Junior

Dorothy Beaumont was hostess for the May meeting of North Grey Junior Institute.

Joan Light, on exchange from Australia, showed slides of that country.

A wedding gift was presented to Ruth Dinsmore, a June bride-elect.

Assisting the hostess were Joyce Taylor and Rosalind Brooks.

Women's Institute

Bothwell's Corner

Several members of North Grey Institute accompanied the members of Bothwell's Corner Women's Institute (WI) on a bus trip to the Kitchener market. The outing took the place of the regular May meeting.

Mrs. Victor Cornfield, president of the senior group, welcomed those in attendance. Mrs. Ralph Clark, president of the Junior Institute, expressed appreciation on behalf of her group.

Paper Clipping of Meetings in 1976

1976 Rummage Sale at Owen Sound Market Building. It was an experience but lots of fun.

Meaford woman heads Grey North

Mrs. Jack Ogden of Meaford was elected president of Grey North district Women's Institutes at the annual meeting in Annan United Church.

Mrs. Jim Thom conducted the meeting and Mrs. Jack Sparling conducted the election of officers.

The past president is Mrs. James Thom, Meaford, vice presidents, Mrs. James Mustard, RR 5, Chatsworth, Mrs. James Keeling, RR 1, Bognor, and Mrs. James Foster, RR 1, Meaford; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Walter Manning, Bognor; assistant, Mrs. Lloyd Edwards, RR 8, Owen Sound, public relations officer, Mrs. Lloyd Spence, RR 8, Owen Sound; assistant, Mrs. James Foster, RR 1, Meaford.

Standing committee conveners and delegates and auditors were also named.

Mrs. Jack Sparling ratified the district directors. The board has asked that each make a quilt block with pattern and instructions accompanying. This is to a winter project with the finished product to be collected at the next district annual.

It was noted that 26 scholarships are available at Guelph through the Women's Institute.

Dr. Gordon Porter brought an inspiring message.

Bothwell's Corner branch welcomed delegates as hostess. Provincial president, Mrs. Herb Maluske brought greetings and encouraged members to continue protesting computer checking in supermarkets.

Mrs. E. G. Urstadt brought greetings from county rally.

It will be held in Massie community hall Aug. 17.

Mrs. Ken Spence brought greetings from area level on behalf of Grey-Bruce area president, Mrs. C. O. Sutcliffe. The area convention will be held Nov. 15-16 in Chesley.

Miss Denise Story, home economist for Grey, reported on 4-H and senior projects.

A cake decorating demonstration was a highlight of the meeting.

Reports were given by standing committee conveners, presidents and vice presidents.

Roll call was answered by showing a craft and explaining how it was made.

Pennies for friendship totalled $56.95.

Mrs. James Keeling conducted the memorial service assisted by Mrs. Carmichael.

Rummage Sale April 1 1976

Our June 76 Meeting was held at the home of Mary Silverthorn. The guest speaker was Marg Hope, from the "Big" Sisters