

was one of us, that while he bore with so much dignity and propriety the honours bestowed upon him, he was always remembered as "John Buchan". His life's work was in literature, and it was in his writings and his prepared addresses that he revealed himself and his thoughts. And it is not an exaggeration to say that the people of Canada learned quickly to evaluate the sterling character of the man through the power of his pen. That pen is now laid down. But in the hearts of all Canadians the great soul, who enriched the life of the dominion in such full measure in so brief a time, will continue to reign in beloved memory.

Lady Tweedsmuir

Susan, wife of our beloved Governor-General, has written many plays, children's books and reminiscences.

She was an ardent W. I. member in England, and was an honorary member of F. W. I. O.

She advocated that our organization across Canada compile the histories of our local communities and villages.

She returned to England following the death of her husband, and is still residing there. (1967)
