

The Junior Red Cross.

The Junior Red Cross in the school under the direction of their teacher Miss Inez Brown also contributed their share to the war effort. They knitted many wash cloths for the soldiers, an afghan and a crib cover for refugees, collected pennies for Polish and Finnish relief and the Soldiers Fund and milk for Britain Fund also the British War Victims Fund.

A pair of blankets were bought and sent through the Red Cross and a box of handkerchiefs for the soldiers.

A sum of $19.75 was realized by sale of tickets on a quilt. This was divided among our local Red Cross branch, Sailors Fund, Crippled Children's Fund. After buying yarn to knit with the remainder went to the Soldiers Fund.

The children collected one load of salvage for the Markdale Red Cross and another load for the Cuphrasia township. They also collected papers and rags.
