

The Globe and Mail

TORONTO, TUESDAY, JULY 7, 1970

YES, IT'S REALLY HER

—Globe and Mail, John McNeill

Eskimo children, some holding Union Jacks, don't know what to say when they see the Queen for the first time Sunday afternoon as she arrives at Frobisher Bay's new Library-Museum Building, to see a display of Eskimo arts and crafts. With dozens of photographers and reporters busting around them, the excitement is just too much.

*Travelling with the Queen's party in Canada 1970 -
 Bill Cole, Canadian Army photographer, son of Sadie Linn
 Cole - grandson of Mr and Mrs. Adam Linn, farmers at East
 Linton in Sarawak - about 1900-1918 -*

On the 8th September 1970, the East Linton Post Office will be closed and commencing on the 9th September 1970 you will be served from Owen Sound by Owen Sound No. 2 Rural Route.

No deterioration in service will result, as it will be mainly a change in the name of the service.

You will be contacted at a later date concerning further arrangements.

Yours truly

H. F. Murray
 H. F. Murray
 District Director