

PURPOSE OF THE TWEEDSMUIR HISTORY

To have an authentic story of this community to pass along to others in the future. To make a permanent record of public enterprises: buildings, occupations, industries, schools, churches and organizations. To have a record of persons in this community who have made it what it is today and shall continue to build in the future.