In our Reference Room:

We have a facsimile copy of "The Indian Chief", 1867, by David Sawyer, in the Archives Reading Room which has transcripts of documents/petitions that were sent by the Newash and Saugeen peoples to the government. This book has some information about the Newash people, as well as Catharine Sutton.

We have a copy of the book Sacred Feathers, re Rev. Peter Jones and Ojibwa people, by Donald B. Smith, 1987, 372 pp. This book concerns the Mississauga Ojibwa, but also includes some info re Catharine Sutton.

Peter York, a First Nations man who lived in the Collingwood Twp. area in the 19th-c. His house is shown on p. 9 of Thornbury Remembered: 1887 to 1987. Mr. York came to Thornbury around 1880 from Christian Island (was an interpreter, an educated Chippewa from Rama). He died 1917.

Croft, Melba. In Their Words. Stan Brown Printers. Owen Sound, 2001.

The back of W. W. Smith's Gazetteer & Directory of the County of Grey, 1865-1866, pp. 326-327 mentions briefly a couple of the older First Nations chiefs at Brooke (formerly Newash).
