Visit our newest traveling exhibit:

And Still I Rise: A History of African Canadian Workers in Ontario 1900 to Present, hosted by the Workers Arts & Heritage Centre, Hamilton, Ontario.

This labour history exhibit was researched and written by African Canadians. "It is a story of a dream not yet achieved, and of their quiet but determined struggle for equality in spite of overwhelming odds." Opening January 23rd and on display until April 17th, 2006.

Teachers: Reserve your spot today as spaces are limited. Extend your visit at Grey Roots by combining this program with -

Our Grey Roots original exhibit: From Slavery to Freedom: African-Canadians in Grey County. Researched and developed with local Black community members, this exhibit highlights African Canadian history in Grey County. Runaway slaves were some of our very first pioneers and it is due to their many contributions that we have the lifestyle we enjoy today. Enjoy a virtual tour at www.greyroots.com – click the exhibits button!

Joining us to celebrate Black History Month is Rogers Cable Channel 53. Tune in each Friday in February, at 11 am, for "Daytime." Program hosts will be interviewing Grey Roots staff and Black community members about Black History subjects.
