

Cosmic Images Photo exhibit at Grey Roots – Opening Sunday April 5, 2009 2 – 4pm

For Immediate Release – April 3, 2009

See the Universe with the Bruce County Astronomical Society Photographers! Grey Roots Museum & Archives is proud to host this travelling photography exhibit produced by the BCAS photographers: Doug Cunningham, Stuart Heggie, John Hlynialuk, Steve Irvine, Troy Johnstone, Charlie Szabototh and Paul Zelichowski. This exhibit will be on display in the Grey Roots Theatre April 5 – May 2nd. It is one of the many celebrations being held for International Year of Astronomy (IYA) 2009.

Canada's Astronomy community has an ambitious goal for IYA: to have one million people experience a Galileo Moment, a chance to experience the wonder of the cosmos firsthand. A primary Galileo Moment is an unforgettable first glimpse through the telescope that inspires further exploration of astronomy.

Bruce County Astronomical Society has partnered with Grey Roots to provide many lectures and star viewings throughout the year. For a complete view of Grey Roots events, visit <http://www.greyroots.com/programs-events/events/>.
